Note From The Pastor

Dr. Glenn E. Robertson, Sr. Pastor

Last weekend we hosted a Marriage Night through Right Now Media. We subscribe to Right Now Media which enabled us to get this event. We had about 18 couples participate. The speakers were all very good. They covered important topics to help marriages. In addition, we had some local talent help out. Karley Reece, who is a licensed family counselor shared some important insights and even had us do some fun couple games to get us all involved. We had food from Smolik's and others. I also helped by providing a photo op for the couples. I recently purchased some photo backdrops for doing headshots. They are 5' x 7', so that is a bit tight for couple photos. It was funny to see so many married couples who didn't seem to want to get so close to snap a photo! (smile) You would think... Thank you to Steven and Karley and others for putting this mini-retreat together.

Just a reminder. If you would like to access Right Now Media at home for personal studies you may do so. Because our church subscribes, you may obtain these videos at home. Just contact Laurie in the office to get an email link. There is no other cost to you. They have Bible studies, parenting studies, marriage studies, on and on. If you have children, they have children programs that are Christian based and safe for home viewing.

This Sunday, I will address how we can have victory over the sin nature. This is one of the purposes of salvation, that we have the presence of the Holy Spirit to help empower us to overcome the flesh. Instead of bearing the fruit of the flesh, God's goal is that we bear the fruit of the Spirit. The nature of heaven is seen in the fruit of the Spirit.

See you Sunday,
Pastor Glenn

ONE NOTE SONG

I know a lot of songs. I've sung a lot of songs. I've played a lot of songs. I can talk about songs for long time: Christian songs, popular songs, all types of genres. You have heard me discuss this one particular song before – it's my "One Note Song."

The song goes like this: "Have a daily devotional time." That's it. Pretty simple.

At some point each day, spend some time in prayer and Bible study. If you aren't already doing this, go ahead and start. It doesn't have to be complicated and take a long time. Find a quiet time and place and talk to the Lord. Then, read His Word. If you want to add a devotional book or magazine or website, super. Just do something to help yourself grow in the Lord.

If you are already having a daily devotional time, keep it up. How can your devotional time become deeper and more meaningful? Read a book about prayer or personal Bible study. Change things up a little to put some freshness into your routine. For many years, I didn't read a pre-written devotional book as part of my routine. About a year and half ago, I was given a book and it was a wonderful experience. Now, I have been looking for some other materials like that to use as part of my devotional time.

So, get going! Or, do you want me to keep singing this song?

Marriage Night 2020

A very big thank you to all of those who made Marriage Night 2020 possible! Sixteen couples attended Marriage Night and heard from RightNow Media speakers as well as Karley Reece. Thank you to our church family for your prayers and support in making this night possible!

Poinsettia Fundraiser

Our students have begun raising funds for Summer camp and will be making poinsettias available to our community and church family for $10/plant. If you are interested in supporting our SWAG youth in their efforts to go to summer camp, please consider letting one of our students know how many poinsettias you would like to purchase. You may also contact me at steven@fbccuero.org or 361-412-1095 for more information.
